

Winter 2011

USA Volleyball Plays a Part on Popular ABC TV Show

USA Volleyball was happy to play a small part in a new home for a family in Moorehead, North Dakota.

USA Volleyball was contacted in the fall by the producers of ABC's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition and asked for assistance in decorating a room in a new house being built for the Grommesh family.

USA Volleyball sent many items, including clothes, balls and posters, for use in the home, which was revealed on the January 2 episode of Extreme Makeover: Home Edition on ABC, which airs at 8:00 p.m. ET and PT, and 7:00 p.m. MT and CT. Two-time beach volleyball Olympic gold medalist Misty May-Treanor (Santa Monica, Calif.) also reportedly made an appearance.

According to the description on the show's web site, "The team builds a handicapped accessible home for the family of a wheelchair-bound 10-year-old. The old home, moved to a new location, will house another family." The episode is entitled "The Grommesh Family."

For more information or to view the episode, you can visit the show's web site at <http://abc.go.com/shows/extreme-makeover-home-edition>.

The Emmy award winning reality program "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition," now in its 8th season, is produced by Endemol USA, a division of Endemol Holding. It's executive-produced by Brady Connell and George Verschoor. David Goldberg is Chairman, Endemol North America. The show airs Sundays from 8-9 p.m., ET on ABC.